

BELLE GLADE NEWS

A Christmas pageant, "The Birthday of the King," was presented Friday evening by students at the Belle Glade school. A procession of 50 children dressed in white vestments and carrying lighted candles opened the pageant singing, "O Come All Ye Faithful." As the Angel Herald recited the Christmas story and prophecy, the vested choir told the story in song, and the scene of the shepherds in the field was shown. The shepherds hurried off to find the Young Child Jesus. While the choir softly sang "Silent Night" the curtain rose on the manger scene. The shepherds and wise men paid their tribute to the King, and while Florence Bass sang "Softly the Babe is Sleeping," a group of little children presented gifts to the King. The vested choir closed the pageant with the Recessional, "Joy to the World."

Those taking part as Biblical characters were: Mrs. Joe Freeland, Mary Joseph, Elaine Freeland, Margaret Kirkman, Mrs. Gene Camp, Leroy Alsop, Clark Ogle, Nash Lloyd, Arthur Wolf, Basil Cook, David Kirkland, and

Dan Galloway. Mrs. T. D. Evans coached the pageant, assisted by Mrs. Herbert Beck and Mrs. W. R. Dickinson. Each room had a Christmas tree and the school children exchanged gifts.

IN MEMORY OF GLADYS "MARION" CHRISTIAN SMITH

Those who named you "Gladys" were led by the Father above, For you were glad and joyful, With a heart reflecting God's love!

I named you "Marion," For you were like my friend to dear,

Who is walking now with Jesus— She began her walk with Him here!

Your husband added "Smith" To your name already fair, He knew he'd found a soul, A "Gladys"—beyond compare!

Our Saviour named you "Christian" He inscribed His name upon your brow,

And even you've sung His praises, In the past, in the future, now!

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first morning, and repeat the first or fifth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help? They throw off a cold? First, Calotabs are dependable of all intestinal ailments and this cleaning the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys and aid in the elimination of cold poisons from the system. They purgative and diuretic action serve the double purpose of clearing the system and disposing of poisons which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only one cent for the trial package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

WHY PRE-COOL?

The rapid cooling of fruits or vegetables by pre-cooling immediately after loading in refrigerator cars and before shipment, keeps them from experiencing several warm days while slowly cooling en route to the market.

It insures an even, low temperature all the way to a direct destination with no necessity for re-icing. In this way, the initial fresh crispness, flavor and color of the fruits and vegetables from the groves and fields are retained all the way to the market, and they will naturally command a higher average price.

WHY PRE-COOL WITH ICE?

Ice is the only medium, with a rapid air circulation that automatically and promptly cools shipments of perishable commodities with no danger of frosting or shrinkage; for washed and deodorized air circulating through the ice to the fruits or vegetables is at an ideal temperature and humidity, and cools without discoloring or drying them out. They are "ICEAIR CONDITIONED."

WHY PRE-COOL WITH THE PHILLIPS SYSTEM?

From tests which were recently conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture, no refrigerator car pre-cooling system without the use of ice or a similar medium for controlling temperature and humidity has equaled the performance of the Phillips portable pre-cooler. Because of its proven ability, the Phillips system is practically the unanimous choice of the largest shippers of perishables in the United States today, and has an unsurpassed record of having conditioned over 75,000 cars since 1930. The over all cost is no more than that of ordinary methods.

PINEAPPLE VELVET

Is Now The VOGUE

THE latest pineapple recipe which is having a wide vogue is not only delicious but can be varied in one cup of boiling water, served with whipped cream and macaroon crumbs or with the crumbs alone. Its name is Pineapple Velvet, and here is how it is made:

Boften two teaspoons gelatin in two tablespoons cold water, then dissolve in one cup of boiling water. Add one-half cup sugar and stir until dissolved. Add one tablespoon lemon juice, and cool until mixture is thick as honey.

Then fold in one cup of cream; whip your left—individual molds wet with cold water and chill in refrigerator. Turn out onto glass dessert plates and pour over each a few tablespoonsful of chilled glaued red raspberries, blackberries or sliced peaches, or fresh fruit. Makes six servings.

To Preserve Delicate Taste

Any fruit served with this recipe slightly disguises the delicate pineapple flavor, though the combination of fruit flavors is delicious. However, if a strictly pineapple flavor is desired, omit the fruit and garish with whipped cream to which macaroon crumbs have been added. Or a spoonful of macaroon crumbs may be placed in each mold before filling with the mixture. When unmolded the crumbs will be on top and so further garish need not be used.
